Can't change water into wine??

Never fear...there is another opportunity to offer the ministry of hospitality.....

We are seeking more volunteers to join the Morning Tea Roster. People volunteer for a Sunday that suits, and changes can be made if circumstances change.

It simply requires arriving at church around 9am to set things up, serving the tea, coffee, and biscuits after the service, and clearing things away. We usually are finished by 11.15.

There would be an experienced person available to show you the ropes. It is a service which is very much appreciated by the congregation and visitors.

Please talk to a Council member or Margaret Tweeddale.

COFFEE AND CHAT

Please note our changed venue this month to Mary Mae's at New Farm. We will start the New Year there on Thursday February 6 from 9:30 until 11am. Then we may have a chat about other suitable venues for the year. In a city full of coffee shops, there must be one that has good coffee, enough space for 12 or so people, is reasonably central with easy parking!!!

New Fridge and Freezer

We are pleased to say that after a lot of to and fro between Rex and the 2 suppliers, the new fridge and freezer have now been delivered and are in place. Thanks to Rex for persevering with this (he had to take the fixed glass panel next to the glass door in Creek St off to fit the freezer in!!). The new fridge is located where the old ones were, the new freezer is located in the Vera Wade Gallery area as it is a larger double door one. Both will be kept locked.

On Saturday, a total of 133 meals and there was no food left so a big thank you to Andrea and her team for the tasty meal! The band played and were appreciated by both guests and volunteers. Lunch was Tuna pasta and vegetable bake (GF), Pasta and vegetable bake (V) with Peach melba (GF) with ice cream and raspberry sauce for dessert.

Prayers of the People

O God of all the prophets,
you knew us and chose us
before you formed us in the womb.

Fill us with faith that speaks
your word,

hope that does not
disappoint,

and love that bears all
things for your sake,

until that day when we shall know you fully,

even as we are known by
you. Amen.
